Please also visit the official OA JumpStart page (password will be shared in an email, a few days beforehand if you don't already know it). It offers great resources to help you understand the meaning of Brotherhood and your journey in Scouting's National Honor Society. It is highly recommended you look at this resource ahead of time.

Make sure to wear comfortable walking shoes, your full field uniform (Class A and Ordeal Sash), and bring a water bottle. While we don't want to give too much away, know that you'll have time for reflection, service, and fellowship with other Arrowmen who share your dedication.
